

Sponsoring of ISTEgIM 2019 conference

Dear Sir / Madam,

On October 24 and 25, the International Symposium on Thermal Effects in Gas flows In Microscale (www.istegim.eu) will take place in Ettlingen / Germany. This symposium finalizes the European Marie-Sklodowska-Curie Innovative Training Network MIGRATE (www.migrate2015.eu). Numerous highly acknowledged international scientists, engineers and representatives from industry will attend to discuss recent scientific findings and developments in a broad variety of topics covering different aspects of enhanced heat transfer and thermal effects in microsystems..

To strengthen the contact between the scientific and industrial communities we would be delighted to have your company as one of our highly appreciated official sponsors. Sponsorship can take place in different ways, namely

- Best Poster Award (our suggestion would be € 500,-)
- Science-on-the-Edge-Award (our suggestion would be € 500,-)
- Travel expenses support for international graduate students
- Specific support based on your own suggestion

Your company name will be published on our event webpage (linked to the project webpage) as well as on our event publications (leaflet, posters, book of abstracts) and on-site at the event, e.g. by means of a poster or display to be provided by you.

We kindly ask you to confirm your sponsorship at your earliest convenience. To guarantee the fastest possible announcement of your sponsorship on our internet pages and to allow the proper preparation of publishing material, please let us know by September 15, 2019, the latest.

Please feel free to contact the Organisation Committee of the conference via migrate@for.kit.edu.
